Homeownership education requirement

Knowledge is power. That’s why the HomeReady mortgage homeownership education requirement is designed to help borrowers gain essential knowledge to prepare for sustainable homeownership, and lenders gain informed borrowers prepared to successfully navigate the loan process.

HomeView makes it simple to meet the homeownership education requirement

When all occupying borrowers on a HomeReady purchase transaction are first-time homebuyers, at least one borrower must complete a course from a qualified provider,* regardless of LTV (see exceptions below). HomeView can be used to satisfy the homeownership education requirement.

Exceptions: For HomeReady loans that involve a Community Seconds or down payment assistance program, buyers may instead complete the homeownership education course or counseling required by the Community Seconds or down payment assistance program as long as it is provided by a HUD-approved agency and completed prior to closing.

In addition, the presence of a disability, lack of internet access, and other issues may indicate that a consumer is better served through other education modes (for example, in-person classroom education or via a telephone conference call).

In such cases, lenders should direct buyers to the HOPE® Hotline 1-888-995-HOPE (4673), which can refer borrowers to a HUD-approved counseling agency.

Finally, buyers who have already completed housing counseling prior to entering a sales contract (as evidenced by a completed Fannie Mae Form 1017) are not required to complete the homeownership education course. See below for more details on counseling requirements.

Benefits of housing counseling

We believe housing counseling from a HUD-approved nonprofit housing counseling agency can help to expand the pool of mortgage-eligible buyers.

In addition to helping borrowers prepare for sustainable homeownership and fulfilling the HomeReady homeownership education requirement, housing counseling can provide a benefit to lenders, too. Exclusively for HomeReady purchase transactions on which buyers have received customized assistance from HUD-approved nonprofit counseling agencies before entering into a sales contract, lenders will receive a $500 loan-level price adjustment credit for HomeReady loans delivered with Special Feature Code 184.

Simple borrower income eligibility

HomeReady is available when purchasing or refinancing any single-family home, as long as the borrower meets the income limits of the property location. (Income eligibility limits may help lenders meet applicable Community Reinvestment Act goals.)

The Area Median Income Lookup tool provides lenders and other housing professionals with a quick and easy way to look up HomeReady income eligibility by address or FIPS code.

Borrower income eligibility limit

* A qualified provider must be independent of the lender, with homeownership education content that is aligned with National Industry Standards (NIS) or U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) standards.
