Footnotes:

¹This fee covers the combined attorney's and notary's fees.

²Because this is not the preferred method of foreclosure, the servicer must obtain approval of its use from Fannie Mae's Regional Counsel prior to initiation by submitting the Non-Routine Litigation Form (Form 20). Applicable fees will be authorized through the Excess Fee process.

³In Washington, the $4,150 fee only applies to judicial foreclosure actions involving e-Notes, as Fannie Mae's prior approval is not required to proceed judicially for e-Note foreclosures. For all other judicial foreclosure actions in Washington, Fannie Mae approval is required (see footnote 2). ⁴This fee includes the work to complete the transfer of title to a successful bidder when the property is sold to a third party. ⁵Reserved.

⁶This fee includes the attorney's fee, the notary's fee and the trustee's commission (or statutory fee).

⁷Fannie Mae will not reimburse the servicer for posting costs incurred after September 1, 2015, in connection with Texas foreclosures, as these services are included in the allowable foreclosure attorney fee.

⁸Reserved.

⁹For any case in which the attorney provides services for "proceedings subsequent" (or "PS") that involve registered land, Fannie Mae will reimburse an additional $1,100 attorney fee as well as any actual, reasonable and necessary costs associated with the PS action. The Mortgage Default Counsel law firm retained by the servicer must request reimbursement of these PS fees and costs directly from Fannie Mae instead of billing them to the servicer.

¹⁰In New York, the non-judicial foreclosure process is to be used only in connection with cooperative share loans. The fee includes all steps in the foreclosure process, including the transfer of the stock and the lease for an occupied cooperative unit.

¹¹Reserved.

¹²Reserved.

¹³This fee applies only to a judicial foreclosure involving a Texas Section 50(a)(6) mortgage loan.
