I. Introduction

A. Background

To support the UCD, the GSEs have published sample numbered Closing Disclosure forms with red "Form Field IDs" superimposed by each field. The Form Field IDs link Closing Disclosure fields to representations of the MISMO v3.3.0 data mapped to them. These numbered forms are a composite of CFPB examples shown in the Integrated Mortgage Disclosures regulation but were created solely by the GSEs to assist in understanding the UCD and are not form samples promulgated by the CFPB. The following table shows where to find the Form Field IDs in the various UCD documents posted on each GSE's Web site:

UCD Document	Location of UCD Form Field ID
Appendix E: UCD Implementation Guide	Used in all tables and figures referencing Closing Disclosure fields
Appendix F: UCD Sample Use Cases	Used in all tables referencing Closing Disclosure fields

B. Text Color Legend

- 1. Black: Text that appears on Exhibit H-25(A) is shown in black font.
- 2. Red: Form reference numbers.
- 3. Blue: Used if the inclusion of a particular data section, block, or detail depends on the type of loan product (e.g., "YES" and "NO" or Sections 19.0-Adjustable Payment (AP) Table and 20.0-Adjustable Interest Rate (AIR) Table).
- 4. Green italics: Clarifies the type of data that must be provided (e.g., "$" and "%") or when data must be provided (e.g., "or" and "(Complete if yes)").

All non-black text should be used for reference only and is not to be considered part of the regulatory requirements.

C. Form Reference Number Format

The reference numbers increase chronologically by logical form section, generally moving from left to right and then down the form. The numbers have the following format, where "n" is a sequential number:

- 1. n.0 Identifies a form section. These are the highest level numbers on the form. For transactions with sellers, there can be up to 24 form sections, depending on the loan product (1.0 24.0).
- 2. n.m Identifies a block of data (m) within a form section (n). For example, in Section 1.0, there are 7 blocks of data (1.1 1.7).
- 3. n.m.o Identifies additional details (o) about a block of data (m) within a form section (n). For example, in Section 4.1, up to three additional sets of details can be provided about 4.1-Loan Amount: 4.1.1-the loan amount in dollars, 4.1.2-an indicator of whether the loan amount can increase, and 4.1.3-if the loan amount can increase details about how that could occur.

D. Identical Values Required in More than one Form Location

When an identical value appears in more than one location on the Closing Disclosure, it generally is mapped using the same data points and XPaths and appears only once in the XML file. However, there are instances where an identical value is mapped using different XPaths (e.g., using document-specific containers vs. containers such as FEE, LOAN_DETAIL, etc.). The Cross Reference Table in the Endnotes at the back of this document highlights identical values that have multiple mappings.

E. Calculated Values

Throughout the form, the reported values for two or more data points may be operated on mathematically to yield the value for yet another data point – for example, subtotals are combined to equal totals. Although these values are functionally equivalent, they are usually sent as unique data points in the transmitted XML file.

A different type of situation involves positive and negative numbers. For example, a value may be reported in one section of the form as a positive number, and later be subtracted from another value in a different section of the form. In this case, the value is treated as a positive number being operated on by the calculation on the form.

F. Indicating Zeroes or Blanks

As a general rule, when a given entry is not applicable for the Closing Disclosure, the amount field is to be left blank. Only those cases where a "zero" should be entered are noted on this form.

II. Purchase Transaction (Closing Disclosure Model Form)

In order to provide a Closing Disclosure Example with any and all possible data on it for mapping purposes (a completely unrealistic situation), the sample Purchase Transaction is an amalgamation of several sample forms provided in the Integrated Mortgage Closing Disclosure Regulation:

Page 1: Based on Exhibit H-25(A) Mortgage Loan Transaction Closing Disclosure – Model Form¹ (p. 80167).

The following segments of other example forms were integrated into this numbered example:

- Data for text responses to the first three "YES" answers in the Loan Terms table from Exhibit H-24(F) Mortgage Loan Transaction Loan Estimate – Negative Amortization Sample (p. 80156),
- Data for the fourth "YES" answer from Exhibit H-24(B) Mortgage Loan Transaction Loan Estimate – Fixed Rate Sample (p. 80144), and
- Data for the fifth "YES" answer from Exhibit H-24(E) Mortgage Loan Transaction Loan Estimate Balloon Payment Sample (p. 80155).
- Page 2: Exhibit H-25(A) Mortgage Loan Transaction Closing Disclosure Model Form (p. 80170)
- Page 3: Exhibit H-25(A) Mortgage Loan Transaction Closing Disclosure Model Form (p. 80171)
- Page 4: Exhibit H-25(A) Mortgage Loan Transaction Closing Disclosure Model Form (p. 80173)
 - Data for text responses to the first "YES" answer in the Adjustable Payment (AP) Table was taken from Exhibit H-24(C) Mortgage Loan Transaction Loan Estimate—Interest
 Only Adjustable Rate Loan Sample
 - Data for the text response to the second through fourth "YES" answers in the AP table was taken from p. 79970 since no actual sample text existed.

□ will not have an escrow account because
 □ your declined it
 □ your lender does not offer one. You must directly pay your property costs, such as taxes and homeowner's insurance.
 Contact your lender to ask if your loan can have an escrow account.

No Escrow
Estimated Property Costs over Year 1	18.6	$	Estimated total amount over year 1. You must pay these costs directly, possibly in one or two large payments a year.
Escrow Waiver Fee	18.7	$

In the future,

Your property costs may change and, as a result, your escrow payment may change. You may be able to cancel your escrow account, but if you do, you must pay your property costs directly. If you fail to pay your property taxes, your state or local government may (1) impose fines and penalties or (2) place a tax lien on this property. If you fail to pay any of your property costs, your lender may (1) add the amounts to your loan balance, (2) add an escrow account to your loan, or (3) require you to pay for property insurance that the lender buys on your behalf, which likely would cost more and provide fewer benefits than what you could buy on your own.

CLOSING DISCLOSURE PAGE 3 OF 5 • LOAN ID # _____

Loan Disclosures

17.0

17.1 Assumption

If you sell or transfer this property to another person, your lender

- □ will allow, under certain conditions, this person to assume this loan on the original terms.
- □ will not allow assumption of this loan on the original terms.

17.2 Demand Feature

Your loan

 \square has a demand feature, which permits your lender to require early repayment of the loan. You should review your note for details.

☐ does not have a demand feature.

17.3 Late Payment

If your payment is more than # days late, your lender will charge a late fee of § OR % of the late payment amount.

17.4 Negative Amortization (Increase in Loan Amount)

Under your loan terms, you

- ☐ are scheduled to make monthly payments that do not pay all of the interest due that month. As a result, your loan amount will increase (negatively amortize), and your loan amount will likely become larger than your original loan amount. Increases in your loan amount lower the equity you have in this property.
- ☐ may have monthly payments that do not pay all of the interest due that month. If you do, your loan amount will increase (negatively amortize), and, as a result, your loan amount may become larger than your original loan amount. Increases in your loan amount lower the equity you have in this property.
- \square do not have a negative amortization feature.

17.5 Partial Payments

Your lender

May 2023

- ☐ may accept payments that are less than the full amount due (partial payments) and apply them to your loan.
- ☐ may hold them in a separate account until you pay the rest of the payment, and then apply the full payment to your loan.
- ☐ does not accept any partial payments.

If this loan is sold, your new lender may have a different policy.

17.6 Security Interest

You are granting a security interest in _____

You may lose this property if you do not make your payments or Satisfy other obligations for this loan.

Adjustable Payment	(AP) Table	19.0 if yes :

18.0 Escrow Account

For now, your loan

18.1 ☐ will have an escrow account (also called an "impound" or "trust" account) to pay the property costs listed below. Without an escrow account, you would pay them directly possibly in one or two large payments a year. Your lender may be liable for penalties and interest for failing to make a payment.

Escrow	Escrow
Escrowed Property Costs over Year 1	18.2	$	Estimated total amount over year 1 for your escrowed property costs: 18.2.1 Descriptive name for each charge
Non-Escrowed Property Costs over Year 1	18.3	$	Estimated total amount over year 1 for your non-escrowed property costs: 18.3.1 Descriptive name for each charge You may have other property costs.
Initial Escrow Payment	18.4	$	A cushion for the escrow account you pay at closing. See Section G on page 2.
Monthly Escrow Payment	18.5	$	The amount included in your total monthly payment.

□ will not have an escrow account because
 □ your lender does not offer one. You must directly pay your property costs, such as taxes and homeowner's insurance.

Contact your lender to ask if your loan can have an escrow account.

No Escrow
Estimated Property Costs over Year 1	18.6	$	Estimated total amount over year 1. You must pay these costs directly, possibly in one or two large payments a year.
Escrow Waiver Fee	18.7	$

In the future,

Your property costs may change and, as a result, your escrow payment may change. You may be able to cancel your escrow account, but if you do, you must pay your property costs directly. If you fail to pay your property taxes, your state or local government may (1) impose fines and penalties or (2) place a tax lien on this property. If you fail to pay any of your property costs, your lender may (1) add the amounts to your loan balance, (2) add an escrow account to your loan, or (3) require you to pay for property insurance that the lender buys on your behalf, which likely would cost more and provide fewer benefits than what you could buy on your own.

IV. End Notes—Cross Reference Table for Closing Disclosure Reference Numbers

The following table is a guide to help identify data values that are disclosed more than once within the Closing Disclosure. If a Closing Disclosure form field is represented more than one time on the form, it is listed in ascending order in the Form Field ID column. The equivalent Form Field ID(s) are presented in the Cross Reference columns in ascending order from left to right. In some cases, one UCD mapping provides the value for each form field; when the data is rendered into the form, the value then appears in multiple locations. However, in other cases, the value appearing in more than one place on the form is also mapped in more than one way. These cases are shown in the Identical Form Values with Multiple Mappings column. If a form field value is the result of a calculation using other fields on the form, the fields used to calculate the value are shown in the Calculation column. The Cross References apply to all Closing Disclosure formats (Model, Alternate, Split-Borrower and Split-Seller) unless otherwise noted.
