

Liquidity for Loans to Native American Borrowers

Fannie Mae accepts delivery of HUD-guaranteed Section 184 (HUD-184) Native American loans as standard products for whole loan committing and delivery as part of our ongoing effort to provide liquidity to our lenders to help them serve today's market.

NOTE: With the exception of HUD-184 and RD-502 Guaranteed, government loans (such as FHA and VA) require a negotiated agreement.

		HUD-184
Eligibility and Underwriting	Description	HUD's Section 184 Home Loan Guarantee Program provides financing to Native American borrowers, including for homes on restricted tribal land.
	Program References	HUD Section 184 Guidelines
	Compliance	HUD-184 Guaranteed loans must comply with the requirements of the respective government agency, as well as Fannie Mae's requirements for government loans.
	Eligibility	HUD-guaranteed first lien purchase and refinance transactions are eligible (per program guidelines)
		Eligible for manufactured housing (MH) property type if it meets HUD requirements.
	Units	One- to four-unit properties
	Interest Rate Buydowns	Not permitted
Loan Type	30-year fixed-rate mortgage only
Pricing and Committing	Whole Loan Pricing	Available in Pricing & Execution – Whole Loan® as "30-Year Fixed Rate HUD-184 Native American"
	Remittance Types	Actual/Actual Remittance type is required for whole loans.
Delivery	Special Feature Code	SFC 202
	Mortgage Type	FHA
	Delivery Requirement	Section of the Act 184: Indian Loan Guarantee

NOTE: See below for specific information required on USDA Forms 1980-11 and 1980-18.

Lender Name: Fannie Mae

Fannie Mae Tax ID No.: 52-0883107

Agency Branch No.: 001

Address: 1100 15th Street NW, Washington, DC 20005

Phone: 800-232-6643

Contact: RD Product Manager

Resources

Selling Guide B6-1-04, Eligible HUD-Guaranteed Section 184 Mortgages, B7-1-05, Government Mortgage Loan Guaranty or Insurance, B6: Government Programs Eligibility and Underwriting.