

Loan Delivery Information for Qualified Mortgage (QM) Edits

Updated December 16, 2024

As a reminder, Fannie Mae does not use our systems to enforce compliance with industry regulations and applicable law. Instead, we rely on our lenders' representations and warranties with regard to compliance with applicable law as outlined in the Selling Guide. Lenders should check with their legal counsel on how to comply with the Revised QM Rule.

Lender Letter LL-2021-11 reminded lenders of the current requirement to deliver a number of data elements related to Qualified Mortgage (QM) in the Uniform Closing Dataset (UCD) file (submitted to us at or before loan delivery), including the method by which the creditor satisfied the Ability to Repay (ATR) requirements or reason for exemption, the Annual Percentage Rate (APR) and Average Prime Offer Rate (APOR) percentages, and points and fees.

We utilize the UCD and Uniform Loan Delivery Dataset (ULDD) (aligned with Freddie Mac), as provided, to perform the checks at time of delivery/purchase. See the Business Rule section below for details on edits.

Loan eligibility APR-APOR thresholds and points and fees requirements per the Lender Letter (allowable loan amounts and values may change each year – review the Consumer Finance Protection Bureau (CFPB) site for the latest information) are listed below:

Business Rules for Loan Delivery and EarlyCheck

The edits validate that the data related to the APR-APOR thresholds and points and fees provided in UCD meets the requirements outlined in the Lender Letter. When lenders are researching loans impacted by these new edits, we recommend that you contact your closing team who submitted the UCD data or the correspondent that submitted the UCD data for assistance in validating that the data in the UCD submission is correct.

- If the data points are incorrect in UCD
  - Update the data in your system that creates the UCD XML file and re-submit the UCD XML file in the UCD Collection Solution
  - Re-run the edits in the Loan Delivery Application. The fatal edit(s) should be resolved
- If all the data points are correct in UCD
  - If you continue receiving the fatal edits in Loan Delivery, the loan is not eligible for delivery

When validating the UCD data for the edits, verify the following applicable data points are correct in the UCD XML file:

- |                                     |                                |                                                  |

NOTE: Additional Data elements to review when validating UCD data

- AutomatedUnderwritingSystemType
- AutomatedUnderwritingSystemTypeOtherDescription
- LoanManualUnderwritingIndicator

NOTE: There is the potential that this edit could also fire in EarlyCheck™ when submitting a MISMO 3.0 ULDD file format, the steps to resolve the issue are the same as above.

Exempt Loans

If a loan is considered Exempt from Regulation Z's Ability to Repay (ATR) requirements, the file should be submitted in UCD with the following data points if the loan is classified as Exempt:

- AbilityToRepayMethodType=Exempt
- AbilityToRepayExemptionReasonType=PropertyUsage or LoanProgram

NOTE: Use PropertyUsage for investment properties, use LoanProgram for Housing Finance Agency (HFA).

NOTE: As of March 1, 2022, single-closing construction-to-permanent loans must meet QM requirements and may require an update to the UCD submission if a modification impacts QM data points (i.e., APR, Average Prime Offer Rate, Note Amount, etc.).

APR-APOR Spread Edits

The following edits are in Loan Delivery and EarlyCheck.

The Loan Delivery edits will calculate the spread based on the APR and APOR values submitted in the UCD casefile. Providing a value of zero for the APOR datapoint in UCD may result in the Loan Delivery edit being issued (if the calculated spread (APR-APOR) is above the allowable threshold). The applicable APOR value should be provided in the UCD file and resubmitted in UCD (contact your closing team or correspondent that submitted the UCD data for assistance if needed). If you need further assistance, ~~contact the UCD Mailbox~~ please Call Us at 1-800-2FANNIE (1-800-232-6643).

NOTE: For short term ARM loans, lenders must calculate the APR using the maximum interest rate that could apply during the first five years after the first payment is due and provide that value in the new UCD field `gse:QualifiedMortgageShortResetARM_APRPercent`. The `gse:QualifiedMortgageShortResetARM_APRPercent` minus the APOR is the calculation that will be used to calculate the spread value for all short-term ARM loans submitted on or after May 1, 2023 in UCD.

Edit Updates for Uniform Closing Dataset (UCD) Closing Solution

The following UCD edits transitioned to fatal severity on 7/31/2021 in the UCD Closing Solution application, as part of the UCD Phase 1 critical edits. The edits enforce the requirement to deliver a number of data elements related to QM in the UCD file, including the method by which the creditor satisfied the ATR requirements or reason for exemption, the APR and APOR percentages, and points and fees. These QM related fields are now used in the Loan Delivery business rules.

We recommend Fannie Mae sellers contact their closing team who submitted the UCD data or the correspondent that submitted the UCD data for assistance in validating the data in UCD submission is correct.
