Property Data API Release Notes

April 15, 2025

Effective April 15, 2025, Fannie Mae will implement an update to our Property Data API to include the option to submit a PDF of the collected property data in addition to the required Uniform Property Dataset (UPD) submission.

For more information

For more information about these Release Notes or Property Data API Technical Specifications, service providers and lenders may contact their Fannie Mae representatives. Additional information is available on the Uniform Property Dataset page.