

UCDP Resources to Support UAD 3.6 and Forms Redesign

September 4, 2025

Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac (the GSEs) have published new and updated resources to help industry partners prepare for enhancements to the Uniform Collateral Data Portal® (UCDP®) user interface (UI) and direct integration (DI). These enhancements support the Uniform Appraisal Dataset (UAD) 3.6 and Forms Redesign Limited Production Period, which starts September 8, 2025.

If you plan to participate in the UAD 3.6 Limited Production Period, these enhancements will help you submit appraisal reports to UCDP using UAD 3.6. If you're not currently part of the UAD 3.6 Limited Production Period and are interested in learning more, visit the Fannie Mae UAD webpage or the Freddie Mac UAD webpage for additional information.
