Description of Ground Rent and Impact to Value/Marketability
Leasehold properties are common in the subject’s immediate market area with most leases having automatic renewal terms of 50 or 100 years. The lease fees are generally minimal in comparison to property values and appear to have no impact on the value or marketability of the properties. The appraisal utilizes 3 sales of comparable leasehold properties from the subject’s neighborhood in the sales comparison approach.

Energy Efficient and Green Features Impact to Value/Marketability

Impact to Value/Marketability Neutral

Description The solar panels are leased and therefore not considered part of the real property. The lease is transferable when the subject is sold, however there is no measurable impact on value or marketability as the decision to transfer the lease would be the personal preference of any purchaser of the property.

Energy Efficient and Green Features Commentary

The Energy Efficiency Ratings and Certifications for the subject and comparables have been considered in the reconciliation and final opinion of market value for the subject. The subject and comparable #2 have solar panels and had energy audits that provided efficiency ratings. Analysis of the data available indicates there is no measurable impact on market value. Analysis indicated that properties with energy efficient features and certifications have, on average, a lower number of days on market than properties with no energy efficiency noted.

Market Commentary

Sales prices have been steady to slightly rising at approximately 1.5% to 2.5% annually. Supply and demand are currently balanced. Days on Market for the settled sales were predominately in the 80-100 days range. Days on Market of current listings is trending higher than recent sales due to the market entering the typically slower fall and winter periods. Absorption rate is 3-4 sales per month with a 4-5-month supply.

The XYZ MLS indicated 10 of 34 (29.4%) of the closed sales in the market area between 09/15/2018 and 09/15/2019 contained seller concessions. Concessions ranged between $1,000 and $25,000, and the median concession was $7,100. This level of concessions was determined to have minimal impact on the marketability or sale prices for properties considered competitive to the subject.

Reconciliation of Sales Comparison Approach

The subject and comparables are located within a suburban market area that is within 40 miles commuting distance to the Northern Virginia and Washington, DC metropolitan business and government centers. Sales of properties with accessory dwelling units, while not uncommon, can be difficult to identify as the units are often not advertised as separate living areas. Comparables #2 and #3 are given greatest consideration as they are the most proximate, contain accessory dwelling units and are most similar in age, quality, and condition to the subject. The subject and all comparables are located within the “Unreal Farms” neighborhood and are leasehold properties.

This appraisal report is subject to the following scope of work, intended use, intended user, definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. Modifications, additions, or deletions to the definition of market value or assumptions and limiting conditions are not permitted. The appraiser may expand the scope of work to include any additional research or analysis necessary based on the complexity of this appraisal assignment. Modifications or deletions to Intended Use, Intended User, and the certifications are also not permitted. However, additional Intended Use, Intended User, and certifications that do not constitute material alterations to this appraisal report, such as those required by law or those related to the appraiser’s continuing education or membership in an appraisal organization, are permitted.

Scope of Work

The scope of work for this assignment is based on the applicable assignment elements, including: the client and any other intended users, the intended use, the definition of market value that follows, the effective date, the subject property and its relevant characteristics, and the applicable assignment conditions. The appraiser must, at a minimum: (1) obtain and review adequate and reliable information for the subject property; (2) research, verify, and analyze adequate and reliable data for the subject market area including data for each comparable property reported; and (3) report his or her analyses, opinions, and conclusions in this appraisal report.

Intended Use

The intended use of the opinions and conclusions contained in this appraisal report is for the intended user to evaluate the property that is the subject of this appraisal for a mortgage finance transaction or related activities.

Intended User

The intended user of this report is the lender/client.

Definition of Market Value

The most probable price that a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale with the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby: (1) buyer and seller are typically motivated; (2) both parties are well informed or well advised, and each acting in what he or she considers his or her own best interest; (3) a reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market; (4) payment is made in terms of cash in U.S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and (5) the price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions* granted by anyone associated with the sale.

*Adjustments to the comparables must be made for special or creative financing or sales concessions. No adjustments are necessary for costs that are normally paid by sellers as a result of tradition or law in a market area; these costs are readily identifiable because the seller pays these costs in virtually all sales transactions. Special or creative financing adjustments can be made to the comparable property by comparisons to financing terms offered by a third-party institutional lender that is not already involved in the property or transaction. Any adjustment should not be calculated on a mechanical dollar-for-dollar cost of the financing or concession, but the dollar amount of any adjustment should approximate the market’s reaction to the financing or concessions based on the appraiser’s judgment.

Statement of Assumptions and Limiting Conditions

The appraiser assumes that the title is good and marketable unless he or she becomes aware of information to the contrary.

If the appraiser has included a sketch or floor plan in this appraisal report, it shows the approximate dimensions and is included only to assist the reader in visualizing the property and understanding the appraiser’s determination of its size.

The appraiser has relied on data provided by third parties in this appraisal report. Such data may include, but is not limited to, floor plans, flood maps, multiple listing real estate services, tax assessment records, public land records, satellite imagery, virtual street views, property data services, surveys, engineering reports, and property data aggregations. After examination of the data and data sources, the appraiser has used only the data he or she considers reliable. The appraiser assumes there are no material omissions in the data relied upon and makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding their accuracy. If the source date is prior to the effective date of the appraisal, the appraiser assumes the property characteristics and supporting information have not changed in the interim.

The appraiser will not be required to give testimony or appear in court because he or she made an appraisal of the property in question, unless specific arrangements to do so have been made beforehand, or as otherwise required by law.

The appraiser has noted in this appraisal report any adverse conditions (such as needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) that the appraiser became aware of during the development of this appraisal. Unless otherwise stated in this appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent physical deficiencies or adverse conditions of the property (such as, but not limited to, needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, adverse environmental conditions, etc.) that would make the property less valuable, and assumes that there are no such conditions and makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied. The appraiser will not be responsible for any such conditions that do exist or for any engineering or testing that might be required to discover whether such conditions exist. Because the appraiser is not an expert in the field of environmental hazards, this appraisal report must not be considered as an environmental assessment of the property.
